Local News.

Additional local on last page.

We had another good rain Tuesday.

Onions, lettuce and radishes are big enough for table use.

Mr. and Mrs. Oosterhout, of Peru, were in town Monday.

Sherm Titus left for White Cloud, Kansas, the first of the week.

John Dorram is able to be out again after a severe attack of quinsy.

Minor Taylor has had his house repainted. Sherm Hadlock is wielding the brush.

Henry Williams visited St. Joe the first of the week, returning home Thursday afternoon.

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. S. W.
Hodges, Monday morning, April 27th, a boy of the regulation weight.

Mrs. Moses Banks was taken sick Wednesday, and for a while suffered severely, but is now some better.

Mrs. H. A. Brand went to Verdon Wednesday evening, to visit her son, Dr. J. W. Bourne, for a few days.

Mrs. Margaret Snow, of Auburn, visited her mother, Mrs. A. D. Skeen, the latter part of last week, returning home Sunday.

Rev. James Hiatt gave this office a short call Monday. Bro. Hiatt has been holding meetings this spring in Missouri and Kansas.

Charley Woodward, librarian of the State Normal school at Peru, visited his parents and friends at Nemaha last Saturday night and Sunday.

We had a mess of new potatoes last Monday, that were raised this spring by G. N. Sanders, on his farm in London precinct. Who can beat it?

Church Howe evidently likes Nema-ha, as he was in town Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday of last week and Sunday morning of this week.

Miss Lulu Tidrow, of Garnett, Kansas, arrived in Nemaha Friday evening of last week, on a visit to her sisters, Mrs. M. A. Woodward and Miss Fannie Yackly.

The young people were out Thursday night distributing May baskets THE ADVERTISER editor was remembered, and a handsome basket was left at his residence.

T. B. Skeen, of Auburn, called in Wednesday and renewed his subscription to THE ADVERTISER, and also subscribed for a copy to be sent to his cousin, Mrs. Mary E. Brazendine, at Franklin, Ky.

If the weather is favorable the children belonging to the Methodist Sunday school will have a May picnic in the woods northeast of town Saturday of this week. They will meet at the church at 9 o'clock a. m.

The annual meeting of the Nemaha Cemetery Association will be held at THE ADVERTISER office in Nemaha, Neb., next Monday, May 4th, 1896, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.
S. GILBERT, Secretary.

The Titus Nursery, located at Nema-ha City, has shipped considerable stock into Johnson this spring, and the News has not heard of a single instance where their trees did not give entire satisfaction.—Johnson News.

Married.—At the residence of F. L.
Woodward, in Nemaha, Nebr., Thursday evening, April 30th, 1896, by Rev.
C. H. Gilmore, Mr. Walter C. Beck with, of Terrell, Texas, and Miss Lulu B.
Tidrow, of Garnett, Kansas. Only a few of the most intimate friends and relatives were present. THE ADVER-TISER extends congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Beckwith.

J. D. Rainey, the Brownville drug gist, gave us a social call Thursday afternoon. He informs us that a first class physician has located at Brownville—Dr. H. H. Smith, a graduate of the celebrated Bellevue (New York) medical college.

W. H. Stockton has a curiosity in the shape of a kitten that has two bodies, perfectly formed, with eight legs, but only one head. The bodies are joined together at the shoulders. The kitten lived about a day and a half.
Stockton has it preserved in alcohol.

The school board in district 58 may consider themselves very fortunate in having secured Mrs. Kempthorne for their teacher for the ensuing year, as she is considered one of the best teachers in the county. Mrs. Kempthorne taught the same school seven years ago.

Sam Anderson informs us that he has rented the corner store room belonging to Moses Banks, and will move his stock of goods to Nemaha as soon as the room can be fitted up. Sam is a rustler and a good business man, and will make things hum when he gets located.

The Nemaha County Teachers' Association will meet at the Auburn high school Saturday, May 9th. We notice that Principal W. L. Davenport is down for a paper on "The Teacher's Relation to Public Opinion." A cordial invitation is extended to school officers, patrons and pupils to be present.

Minor Taylor is putting on lots of style these days. Not content with having a new kitchen built and his house repainted, he has started a new fashion by having his hogs striped with red. Minor says it is easier to identify them if they get out if they are marked in that way.

George Burgess' oldest boy was kicked in the face by a horse last Saturday. His nose and lips were badly bruised, his front teeth loosened and almost knocked out, and his gums lacerated. Dr. Keeling fixed him up as well as possible, but he will not be able to eat in comfort for some time.

Rev. D. B. Lake, who has been located at Rockport, Mo., for the past three years, was moved to Carrollton at the recent Missouri conference of the M.
E. church. It is said to be an excellent charge, and we feel sure the people of Carrollton will have no cause to regret that Bro. Lake has been sent there for the coming year.

Rush O. Fellows, the former editor of the Auburn Post, has had a streak of bad luck. About two weeks ago he moved to Denver, where we understand he has secured employment with the B. & M. Co. He deposited $500 (about all the money he had) in a bank, and in two or three days the bank suspended.
It is thought that depositors will be paid in full, though, if the cost of settling up is not too great.

Grandma Skeen was so unfortunate as to slip and fall a few days ago, injuring the limb that was broken last fall. Mrs. Skeen has been able to walk with the aid of crutches for some time.
The morning the accident occurred she went out on the porch, which was wet with rain or dew, and the crutches slipped, letting Mrs. Skeen fall, severely injuring the broken limb. She has been confined to her bed ever since.

A. H. Gilmore & Sons, at Auburn, carry a large line of latest style dress goods at lowest prices. See them.

T. W. Eustice, at Auburn, carries a large line of wall paper at prices to suit the times.

Miss Harris, "the milliner," at South Auburn, carries the latest style millinery. Low prices. Nemaha ladies are invited to call.

Old papers for sale at this office,

A party was given Monday night, at the residence of Rev. C. H. Gilmore, in honor of the birthday of Miss Lillie, who was seven years of age on that day. About thirty of her little friends were present, and every one present was enthusiastic over the good time they had. Refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served during the evening, and we know they were delicious because we were sent a share, and got out of bed to partake thereof.

We paid a short visit to the Titus Nursery last Saturday. The spring trade is about over, and all hands are now busy cultivating the nursery stock and orchards. The entire nursery is in a high state of cultivation, and is kept free of weeds than the majority of gardens. A large piece of ground has been put out in grafts, and preparations have been made for a big trade next year. The young trees of different kinds are all doing fine. It will pay any one to pay a visit to this nursery.

The Odd Fellows celebrated the 77th anniversary of their organization with an entertainment and supper Saturday night, at their hall in Nemaha. After some music and recitations Rev. C. H.
Gilmore made an excellent talk, even though, as he said, he was talking about something he knew nothing of and was talking to those whose who knew all about it. Hon. Church Howe then made a very interesting talk on the objects and history of the order.
When the exercises were over a long table was set in the center of the room, and those present were invited to partake of supper, consisting of oyster soup, cake, coffee, pickles, etc. The Odd Fellows always have good times at their entertainments, and this one was no exception. The editor of THE ADVERTISER and his wife were among those fortunate enough to be invited to the entertainment, and it was heartily enjoyed—especially the supper.

For latest style millinery go to Miss Harris, "the milliner," South Auburn.

Books, stationary and toilet articles at T. W. Eustice's, Opera House Drug Store, Auburn.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding.
Quick time. All trains met. John McElhaney, proprietor.

The G. A. R. entertainment and supper, given at the opera house Friday night of last week, was one of the best ever given in Nemaha. The program was excellent. It consisted of a fine flag drill and some choruses by the school children, and recitations by Misses Bessie, Annie and Kate Frost, Edith Gilmore, Bell Galbraith, Mabel Brogan and May Brooks. The flag drill won universal praise, and Miss May Brooks should certainly feel proud of the way the little folks responded to her training. The recitations were all fine. After this part of the program was finished there was a recess of about a half hour, and then the audience was well entertained by fifteen minute speeches by Rev. C. H. Gilmore, Hon. T. J. Majors and Hon.
Church Howe. The supper furnished by the wives of the members of the post was first class—it always is.

For the finest line of shirt waists go to A. H. Gilmore & Sons', Auburn.

The finest stock of goods in the country is to be found at Taylor's. He also has secured the sale of Begg's Family Medicines. Every bottle warranted. They will give you satisfaction.

For the best line of ready mixed paints in the country, go to T. W.
Eustice, Opera House Drug store, Auburn.
